ARMADA HOUSE

There is something magical about Christmas by the sea. This year, make Armada House entirely your own and gather the people you love for three unforgettable days of fireside warmth, wonderful food, and effortless hospitality.

Arrive on Christmas Eve, and leave the rest to us- from Champagne by the fire, and Christmas dinner around the table, to lazy mornings, coastal walks, and long evenings together. Your house, your Christmas, beautifully taken care of.

NOTES.

This package includes all meals as set out above for all residents of the house.

The package includes all drinks at mealtimes including pre dinner drinks receptions, all other drinks during the stay are charged on consumption.

Your stay will be hosted by a dedicated team from the Armada, including breakfast cook, and chefs, along with Daily Housekeeping, there will be someone on site from 7.30am each day until 10pm to assist and take care of you, after these times it will be self service, in the interest of privacy and exclusivity.

Wines and Champanges will be available to be selected from a selection prepared by our sommelier, who can support you on this though video call or private tasting.

The Christmas Day Dinner will include selection on each course, we will take an order on Christmas Eve before 5pm to enable us to perfectly deliver this.
If you require music or entertainment in the house, we will assist in arranging this, but we cannot confirm that this would be possible on Christmas day.

A service charge of 10% on the house bookout fee will apply, this will be for the team working over the 3 days and shared with them only, no other gratuity would be expected during the stay.
